Consignment ratio is a 50%-50% split on the final sale price between Consignor and Leftovers. Consignment term is 60 days. Consignor may reclaim items at any time during the 60 day consignment period. Consignor confirms legal authorization to consign items.

Consignor may reclaim unsold items at the end of 60 day term. IT'S CONSIGNOR'S RESPONSIBILITY TO RECLAIM THEIR UNSOLD ITEMS. Consignors must call and make an appointment to collect their reclaims. Your reclaim date is written in the box below.

Final prices are set by Leftovers. Your signature below confirms your agreement to prices written above. We guarantee items to be priced and on our sales floor within 5 days of receipt.

Leftovers makes no guarantee as to whether, when or at what price an item may sell (except to state the maximum retail price to be displayed). Any verbal statements or comments are superseded by this contract.

Leftovers reserves the right to donate expired, unsold consigned items. You may request a donation receipt by telephone or email.

Consignment checks are mailed on the 15th of each month. Example: all items sold in January - checks will be mailed February 15th. Items sold in February will be paid on March 15th and so on. No payment alternatives are available.

Leftovers cannot assume responsibility for, or insure against, damage, theft or loss of consigned property.

Leftovers charges a $1 handling fee which is automatically deducted from your consignment check. Also, a small buyers fee will be charged at the time of sale. This will not affect the split between the Consignor and Leftovers.

If your consignment check amount is under $10, Leftovers will "roll over" that amount to the next month's check to save resources.

Your signature below confirms that you have read, understand and agree to the terms above:
